East Tennessee Dodge

Best Place to Buy a Used Vehicle

East Tennessee Dodge, Chrysler and Jeep is a premier used car dealer, offering all makes and models of pre-owned inventory. All used vehicles have been through a multi-point inspection by an ASE certified technician. The oil and filter are changed and all fluids topped off. Each vehicle is fully detailed and made ready for immediate delivery. With the East Tennessee Dodge three-month, 3,000-mile warranty available on cars with no factory warranty, your satisfaction is assured. East Tennessee Dodge also happily provides CarFax reports on all used inventory and buyers can purchase the unique Car Doc maintenance membership to keep a “new to you” car in tip-top shape. East Tennessee Dodge also offers new Dodge, Jeep, Chrysler or RAM models and can service all makes and models in the service department.

Make it Personal! It's Not Just Our Name - It's What We Do!

The mother-daughter team of Judy B. Smith and Valerie R. Cox has been helping to delight customers with unique, one-of-a-kind gifts at Make it Personal! for 9 years.

“We absolutely love what we do,” said Smith, who added the dedicated staff offer high-quality embroidery services that are all done in house. “Our individualized attention to detail is the meaning of Make it Personal! Its' not just our name. It's what we do and who we are.

Make it Personal! opened in 2005 and remains a family endeavor, with an awesome grandson and son, Steven, and a dedicated staff providing great service.

“We are proud to announce that we are now offering a full service baby and bridal registry to our customers, with several beautiful items personalized especially for the new arrival or the happy couple,” said Smith.

The business also offers a wide selection of trendy and unique gifts for all of life's important occasions, and for honoring those important people in your lives. Make it Personal! also helps small businesses brand themselves with their company logo emblazoned on products. Embroidery, monogramming, applique and vinyl monogram services are available on products, or bring your own items to be personalized.

Make it Personal! also offers monogrammed jewelry, metal initials and monograms, personalized phone cases and iPad covers, Tyler candles, purses, scarves, jewelry, just to name a few items.

“We view each piece as a gift from us,” said Cox. “If we would not proudly give the item to a family member, then it does not go out our doors. Period. We hold ourselves to high standards.”

Make it Personal! is always trying to better serve customers with new services and items. They now offer monogrammed shower curtains, rugs, beach towels, pillows and bedding.

New creations and items can be seen on Facebook at www.facebook.com/mip-gifts.

Sue Stephens
AMPS Tanning

Best Boss

Sue Stephens thanks everyone who voted for her as the no. 1 boss, as well as voting her business, AMPS Tanning, the no. 1 tanning salon in Cumberland County. Everyone is welcome to attend a celebration April 19, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Stephens and her husband, Art, first opened a tanning business in New York with their daughter, Chrissy, in 2001. They sold the business in 2004 and the couple moved to Crossville, re-opening the tanning salon March 7, 2006. The business now offers 17 tanning beds, 1 Verspro spray booth, aqua massage and a hydration station. She and Art completed their tanning salon operators re-certification in 2013.

Heather Mullinix, Crossville Chronicle

Best Local Newspaper Columnist

First, thank you, thank you, thank you, to all those who cast a vote for my name in the Crossville Chronicle's 2014 Readers' Choice Awards. I appreciate so very much the honor of being the 2014 Readers' Choice newspaper columnist, as well as all those who comment on my work. This isn't always the easiest job, and sometimes it can seem a bit thankless. Having someone comment that they even read something I wrote, whether they liked it or not, can often be re-affirming of my career choices. If I hear someone compliment my work, it's an even better feeling. I didn't aspire to be a newspaper gal from a young age. It hit me in high school and I pursued it through extracurricular activities until I made it to "the big time" and saw my first byline in print. I was hooked.

Through it all, I have tried to live up to the values and ideals I was raised to respect — hard work, integrity, honesty. These are things my parents, my grandparents, my aunts, uncles, teachers and preachers taught me. Their lives were examples of hard work and perseverance and they taught me that I might not always try hard and succeed. In fact, from sports to school and beyond, many times I would try my hardest and still not quite make the cut.

I found mentors along the way to encourage me and challenge me to grow. Yes, there have been some negative voices along the way, but the negative voices can help give you the will to stay in the fight, and so I am thankful for those I have encountered along the way. I'm much more thankful, however, for the mentors and the positive voices who have helped me these past 20 years. From Hix Stubblefield, who encouraged me to attend TTU and was my teacher, mentor and, I am thankful to say, friend and colleague after graduation, to Michael Moser, editor of the Crossville

Chronicle, who has encouraged me and challenged me to keep getting better at this craft, I say thank you. Thank you to Pauline Sherer, who took a chance on a fresh-out-of-school graduate and gave me a workplace home that offered me room to grow and learn. Thank you to David Spates and Cheryl Duncan, former assistant editors of the Chronicle, Senior Staff-writer Gary Nelson, former copyeditor Laurie Robinson and Sports Editor Ed Greif for teaching me the ropes when I started working on West Ave. in 2000. What a fantastic team to start this journey with! I'm so thankful for the team that I work with today, Mr. Moser, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Greif, as well as Caroline Selby, who has relieved me of some of the design work so that I have the time to focus on reporting the news; Missy Wattenbarger, features editor, who does a fantastic job covering local events and activities, and keeps our news submissions organized; and Clinton Gill, editor of the Glade Sun, who is relatively new to journalism, but eager to learn and happy to lend a hand to his coworkers.

From the advertising staff to the mail room staff and everyone in between, the Crossville Chronicle has become my home-away-from-home and the people who work here my family. With them in my corner, I can do anything!

Heather Mullinix is assistant editor of the Crossville Chronicle. Her column regular column is published in the Tuesday edition of the Crossville Chronicle. She may be reached at hmullinix@crossville-chronicle.com.

"Thank you, Cumberland County, for selecting Cracker Barrel as Best Breakfast, Vegetarian Food and Family Friendly Restaurant. It's a great honor!" Cracker Barrel serves traditional Southern comfort food, often described as "down-home" country cooking, and sells gift items including toys and woodcrafts. Breakfast is served all day, and there are two menus: one for breakfast, the other for lunch and dinner. Since the first restaurant opened, the menu has featured Southern specialties, including biscuits, fried chicken and catfish. Each restaurant features a front porch lined with wooden rocking chairs, a stone fireplace and artifacts from the local area.

Rhadika Miller

Best Coach

Cumberland County High School Lady Jets Basketball Coach Rhadika Miller was voted the best coach in Cumberland County. Miller's team started the 2013-'14 season with a 17-game winning streak and finished with a 28-6 record, tied for second in District 6AAA regular season, District Tournament Champion and Region 3AAA runner-up. Miller has been active in coaching basketball in the Upper Cumberland region for more than 15 years. She has a 57-44 overall record at CCHS. She and her husband, Andrew, have two children, Trystan and Sofiah.

Rita Martin

Best Bus Driver

Mrs. Rita Pugh Martin was hired as a bus driver in 1985, joining the ranks with both of her brothers, Ronnie and Jerry Pugh. Mrs. Rita graduated from CCHS and is married to Kenneth Martin. They have four children, nine grandchildren, and reside in the Meridian community. As a student, Mrs. Rita thought the world of her bus driver, Mr. Charlie Ty, who always took an interest in his students. Mrs. Rita drives his route today and takes the same interest in her students. She enjoys seeing them each day and watching the sun rise as she drives her route.

Voted BEST NEWSPAPER COLUMNIST

Heather Mullinix is a native of Fentress County, graduating from York Agricultural Institute in 1996. She attended Tennessee Technological University where she studied English-journalism, focusing on news and editorial writing. She began her newspaper career in August 2000 as editor of the Glade Sun, a Crossville Chronicle publication. She soon moved to the Chronicle staff, working as a staff writer covering business and education beats, as well as general assignment news stories and features. In 2004, she was promoted to the position of assistant editor, where she assumed responsibility for layout of the news sections of the tri-weekly publication and coordination of numerous special publications throughout the year. Heather covers the Cumberland County Board of Education, general assignment news and features, and writes a regular personal column, "Tidbits," which is published each Tuesday. "This is a wonderful honor," said Mullinix. "Everyone likes a pat on the back, and I'm no different. It is wonderful to know that, not only are readers reading my work, but they are enjoying it as well." Heather Mullinix may be reached at hmullinix@crossville-chronicle.com

Nicole Begue Hackmann and Herman Sebek perform in the Cumberland County Playhouse production of "The King and I" in 2013. The Cumberland County Playhouse is the only major non-profit professional performing arts resource in rural Tennessee, and one of the 10 largest professional theaters in rural America. More than 145,000 visitors attend performances each year with two indoor and two outdoor stages, young audience productions, a comprehensive dance program, a concert series and touring shows. The Playhouse has been managed and directed by two generations of the Crabtree family since 1965.
