

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2004

Jeffrey Tyler Steltzner, 5 1/2, makes a god's eye fiber art craft project with the help of his uncle Barry Steltzner during Funday Sunday at the Great Lakes Children's Museum in Traverse City.

Herald photos by Garret Leiva

Museum masterpieces

Children explore art at Funday Sunday

Traverse City resident Julia Jarvis and her younger sister, Anna create watercolor paintings during Funday Sunday.

Above: Williamsburg resident Anna LaSusa, 6, dabs her brush in paint as she creates a watercolor masterpiece.

Left: Marcus Russell, 7, of Traverse City creates a "saber-toothed shark" watercolor painting during Funday Sunday at the Great Lakes Children's Museum. Merrily Bauer, a local artist and educator with the Art Center Traverse City, led a special hands-on exploration of watercolor painting and fiber arts at the museum's Funday Sunday program.

TC HAPPENINGS

Things to do, places to go, people to see

War stories

Local author Chuck Pfarrer will sign copies of his book, "Warrior Soul" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Horizon Books in Traverse City. Pfarrer, a former Navy SEAL, takes the reader all over the world, recounting some of his most dangerous assignments. For more information, call 946-7290

Chinese New Year

A Chinese New Year's celebration will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday in the Traverse Area District Library Meeting Room. The event will feature crafts, games and fun for children ages 10 and older. Pre-registration is required. For more information, call 932-8503

Benefit concert

Interlochen Arts Academy Band and Traverse City West Junior High Percussion Ensemble will present a benefit concert for the West Junior High Band program at 8 p.m. Saturday in Corson Auditorium at the Interlochen Arts Academy. Tickets are $6 adults, $3 seniors and students. For more information, call 276-7800