

ELECTION 2002: DISTRICT JUDGE

83rd DISTRICT
(Roscommon and Crawford counties)

SCOTT HESS
Non-partisan
■ AGE: 43
■ RESIDENCE: 11262 Fairway Drive, Roscommon

■ EDUCATION: Thomas M. Cooley Law School, bachelor's degree in humanities and pre-law Michigan State University

■ PROFESSION: Attorney
■ POLITICAL EXPERIENCE: None. Represents many townships
■ PRIORITIES: Establish drunk driving court and domestic violence programs to give people incentives to not be repeat offenders.

■ WHY SHOULD VOTERS ELECT YOU? I am the candidate with the most overall experience prosecuting ordinance violations for the townships and working in courts from the Upper Peninsula to the Detroit on all types of cases.

DANIEL L. SUTTON
Non-partisan
■ AGE: 52
■ RESIDENCE: 90 West Branch Road, Prudenville
■ EDUCATION: Thomas M. Cooley Law School, bachelors in business administration from Central Michigan University
■ PROFESSION: chief prosecutor for Roscommon for 16 years, two years as assistant prosecutor and civil counsel for the county
■ POLITICAL EXPERIENCE: 18

years with Roscommon County in prosecutor's office

■ PRIORITIES: To help errant youth to get on the correct path and I believe in constituent and fair punishment which I think is part of that.

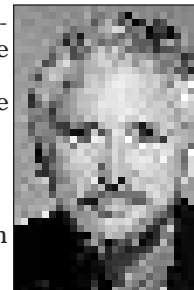

Why should voters elect you? Eighteen years in prosecutor's office and the trial courts puts me in the unique position to step into the judges shoes.

Michael Estes Wants To Debate ...

...but WHERE'S JASON???

Why Won't Jason Allen Defend His Record?

In the 2000 election Jason Allen refused to participate in the League of Women Voters debate, backed out of the TV29 & 8 debate, and at the last minute, walked out of the Grand Traverse Band debate before it got underway. In this campaign he has avoided or declined to appear every proposed debate thus far.
