

Pin is start to winning 'gorgeous boat'

Thanks to Grand Bay Marine, one lucky gold pin winner will take home a brand new 2003 Crownline 180 BR Sport Boat, powered by Volvo Penta, on a custom Eagle Trailer.

"It is cherry red with race-inspired decals on the side," said John Brown, director of the pin program. "It's a gorgeous boat."

Brown said the boat seats eight comfortably and even has a special clip on the back to tow waterskiers.

Included with the prize package are free lessons and orientation at Grand Bay Marine.

"You're not just handed the keys," Brown joked. "For people that have never owned a boat before, they'd be in trouble."

Festival-goers will have a week-long opportunity to view the watercraft at the Festival Open Space Park.

Runners-up will take home a Passageways Carlson Wagonlit Travel Royal Caribbean Cruise, or two Northwest Airlines tickets for travel anywhere in the 48 contiguous states.

Festival-goers will have an opportunity to purchase the 2003 Commemorative Pins for $3 and qualify to win at various venues during the Festival.

"The pin allows entry to the upper deck for music and into the beverage pavilion," Brown said. "One pin is good for all week."

During the month of June, Kiwanis Club members have been selling the pins to benefit charities chosen by the club.
