

Kinney's Pioneer Service Traverse City's Complete Auto Repair 128 S. Union • Traverse City • 946-7180

Kinney's Pioneer Service was established in April of 1971. Lon Kinney and his father Clint Kinney, operated the One Stop Service for many years together. Upon the retirement of Clint, Lon and his wife Diane purchased this business, keeping the heritage of the Pioneer Service established in the early 1920's alive. This Auto Repair Facility was named the Pioneer Service because it was the first One Stop Auto Repair Service in Northern Michigan. Kinney's Pioneer Service has continued to offer complete one stop service including minor to major repairs.

Lon and Diane Kinney are very proud owners of a business that has such a tremendous heritage in the Grand Traverse area. With Matt Kinney as Service Manager and Jenney Kinney as Office Manager, along with our friendly, professional staff, we are more than ready to serve you with 21 different tire lines, 3 state of the art alignment racks, and much more. As they continue to grow and expand, they hope to continue to improve their service to this area.

Max's Service

135 East State Street • Downtown Traverse City

How many businesses can say they have had three generations of family ownership? Max's Service in downtown Traverse City can! Since 1945, Max's Service in downtown Traverse City can! Since 1945, Max's has been family-owned and operated.

Max Crandall bought the business in 1945. He sold and serviced small and large appliances, bicycles, Goodyear Tires, and many odds & ends.

In the mid to late 1970's, Max's son-in-law Jim Owens took over. Jim continued with the same ideas as Max, but adapted to the changing times - selling major appliances & electronics. In the early 1980's Jim discontinued the tire/service garage.

In 1994, a third generation joined the business, Jim's son, Jeff Owens.

Max's Service delivers and services a 40-mile radius around Traverse City. They sell major appliances, electronics as well as patio furniture.

Max's takes great pride in their service and the prices they offer. The biggest misconception is that Max's prices are higher. That isn't true when you compare the services they offer during and after the sale; a complete store.

That's why for over 50 years their motto has been "It's Service that counts."

Reynolds-Jonkhoff Funeral Home

305 Sixth Street • Traverse City • 947-6347

The Reynolds-Jonkhoff Funeral Home is located in the magnificent Perry Hannah Home built in 1893 by lumber baron and founder of Traverse City, Perry Hannah. In 1937, the Weaver family moved their funeral home from Union Street to the Hannah House considering it to be the ideal, spacious setting for the bereaved of our community. Miraculously, no alterations were needed and everything remained preserved.

On January 1, 1977 Jack and Maxine Jonkhoff acquired the funeral home and fifteen years later sold it to their fifth generation funeral director son, Dan and his wife Peg. Today, the Reynolds-Jonkhoff Funeral Home remains the only locally-owned, family-owned funeral home in Traverse City. Local ownership ensures familiarization with local customs and traditions, sensitivity to each families unique needs, commitment to countless community service activities as well as the ability to change quickly adapting to the special needs of our community.

Dan and Peg, along with their caring staff of professionals, pride themselves in providing personalized service 365 days per year, 24 hours a day respectful of every families wishes and special needs. Before, during or after the service - they are the people who know you, the people you can trust and depend on, today and tomorrow.
