Benzie's Plumstead makes run at history

Frederick, hasn't made his mind up about playing in college next season. He did say he's interested in Central Michigan, Grand Valley, Saginaw Valley or possibly Army.

"As soon as the season gets over, I'll concentrate on that and hopefully somebody will offer me a scholarship," Plumstead said.

Plumstead's athletic abilities also extend beyond running the ball.

He's a standout safety — the position he'll most likely play in college.

In the winter, Plumstead plays on the basketball team and this spring he won the Division III shot put state title with a throw that would have won all four divisions.

"I knew he was the premier running back in northern Michigan, but then I saw him throw shot put last spring and my jaw dropped," Sellers said.

"The kid has an incredible body — strong and fast."

"I've seen some good football players in northern Michigan, but Josh is by far the best athlete I've ever seen," Holman said. "I'll coach another 20 years and I'll never coach another athlete like him.

"He's a good one. Not only is he a great athlete, he's a great kid.

"He's the complete package."
