nine-hole course with limited public play. It's an open, slightly rolling course. Fairways and greens are well-maintained. 627-5971.

Wildwood Lakes: A popular 9-hole course with tree-lined fairways and small greens. It plays to 2,634 yards. 525-8949.

CRAWFORD COUNTY

Fox Run: This course opened in 1990 and is an 18-hole layout on 225 acres of wooded, rolling terrain. It plays to 6,293 yards and is a par 72. It's located south of Grayling, one-half mile W of I-75, exit 251. (989) 348-4343 or 800-4-FOXRUN.

Forest Dunes: This is a Tom Weiskopf-designed course that is open to the public for limited play until membership roles are filled. A second 18-hole championship course is also being planned. (989)-350-0633.

Hawk Ridge: The first nine holes of this Grayling course are now open. It was designed by John Robinson, the architect for The Chief and Hawk's Eye in Bellaire. Players will note the elevation changes in the course. There's a differential of 210 feet from one end of the course to the other. 989-275-2075.

Grayling Country Club: This 18-hole course plays to 5,707 yards. Located on James Street, just south of the M-72 junction. (989) 348-5618.

EMMET COUNTY

Bay Harbor Golf Club: This course has been compared to Pebble Beach from Nathaniel Crosby himself. It's a great setting, with holes located along the water. 439-4028.

Birchwood Farms: A private 18-hole course in Harbor Springs.

Boyer Highlands Heather: The Heather has wooded fairways with sand hazards and water in play on 10 holes. The course plays to 7,218 yards from championship tees and 6,554 from back tees. 526-3029.

Boyer Highlands Moor: The Moor has moderately wide fairways and large, undulating greens with deep bunkers. Some fairways have two and three water hazards to negotiate. It plays to 7,179 yards from championship tees and 6,521 from back tees. 526-3028.

Boyer Highlands Donald Ross Memorial: The Memorial course has duplicated 18 of designer Donald Ross's most famous holes, including holes from Pinehurst, Scioto, Oakland Hills, Seminole and Inverness. It plays to 6,840 yards from back tees and 6,308 from middle tees. 526-3028.

Boyer Highlands Arthur Hills: Yardages vary from 3,500 on the back tees to 2,640 on the front tees. Each hole has a distinctive design. 526-3028.

Chestnut Valley: Senior PGA pro Larry Mancour designed this course. The 18-hole course plays to 6,700 from the championship tees. The course features five par threes and five par fives. 348-0880.

Crooked Tree Golf Club: This 18-hole championship course and residential development is located just west of Petoskey on U.S. 31. The course sits on the bluffs overlooking Little Traverse Bay and offers views of the Bay, Harbor Springs and Lake Michigan. It plays to 6,584 yards and is a par 71. 439-4030.

Harbor Point: This 18-hole course is private until 1:30 p.m. each day. It's located on Shore Drive near Harbor Springs. 526-2951.

Hidden River Golf and Casting Club: This is a new course than combines golf and fly fishing, since the facility is located on the banks of scenic Maple River. 800-225-2606.

Little Traverse Bay Golf Club: This public course offers great scenery and a fair, playable 18 holes. The layout is located about halfway between Petoskey and Harbor Springs. 526-6200.
