

TART's Earth Day work bee Sat., April 26

The Traverse Area Recreational Trail (TART) organization has an Earth Day event that is fun and benefits the whole family.

TART is hosting trail cleanups on both the Leelanau Trail and the TART Trail on Saturday, April 26

Safe ride demonstrations

Backcountry Outfitters and The Watershed Center will be giving canoe/kayak rides and demonstrations Saturday, June 7, from 1 to 4 p.m. at Bryant Park in Traverse City. Admission is $5 per person/$10 family. Food and refreshments will be available. Proceeds will benefit the Grand Traverse Baykeeper. For more information, call 935-1514.

from 9 a.m. to noon.

Volunteers will pick up trash, sweep and trim trees so be dressed appropriately. TART will provide refreshments for volunteers.

For work on the Leelanau Trail: Meet at Cherry Bend Road. Aside from trimming, cleaning and sweeping the trail, removal of railroad ties needs to be done. Bring gloves, trash bags, hand saws, chain saws, brooms and hedge clippers.

Volunteers for the TART Trail: Meet at 3 Mile Road and work the same hours. Volunteers will pick up trash, sweep trails and trim bushes. Bring gloves, trash bags and brooms.

Contact the TART Trails office at 941-4300 if you have any questions.

The Earth Day TART trail cleanup will be on Saturday, April 26, from 9 a.m. - noon.
