

Entertainment

From concerts at Interlochen to the Clinch Park Zoo, there is plenty to do for the whole family, but it's those attractions that complement the beauty of nature with an evening of entertainment that leave even the most reluctant romantic sighing in content.

The Nauti-Cat, a 47-foot catamaran, offers several cruises during the summer months, including the Champagne Sunset sail. A toast to every sunset makes this one of the most popular ways for romantics to enjoy Grand Traverse Bay.

"The Nauti-Cat ensures a smooth, comfortable sail that first time sailors and long time sail enthusiasts will enjoy," said Russell Schindler, Captain of the Nauti-Cat. "The size allows up to 43 passengers to relax or sight see from the high and dry decks and seating area." An on-board bar, two rest-rooms, state of the art sound system and a friendly crew make sailing with the Nauti-Cat a main ingredient for the recipe of a romantic summer evening.

No matter what makes your heart sing, the Grand Traverse region provides thousands of ways to excite your senses, spark your interest and warm your memories year after year. For more information or:
