COMING ATTRACTIONS

Sequels and sizzle on big screen

This summer's crop of new movies continues to bloom, featuring sequels (think "Lara Croft") as well as well-known characters in history (think "Sea Biscuit").

Following is a sampling of films that are expected to open in the Traverse City area in the coming month. Note that the schedule is subject to change. When available, ratings information is included.

Charlie's Angels: Full Throttle

Cameron Diaz, Drew

Barrymore and Lucy Liu reunite to save the endangered witness protection program. Bill Murray is out as Bosley; Bernie Mac fills the bill as Bosley's brother. Demi Moore is in as an ex-angel. Rated PG-13 for action violence, sensuality and language/innuendo.

28 Days Later

A virus turns most of Britain's inhabitants into murderous zombies. After 28 days, a handful of survivors find themselves caught in a struggle to protect themselves from the infected. What they find is
