

Record-Eagle/
Lara Neel
Wayne Jackson, of Columbiaville, Todd Brewer, of Manistee, Dale Peters, of Benzonia, and George Martin, of Hopkins, meet before dancing at the intertribal powwow at the Open Space.

Record-Eagle/Lara Neel
Actress Irene Bedard talks to Dajia Shinos, 5, at an autograph session. Bedard has been in 25 films, including "Pocohontas" and "Smoke Signals."

Record-Eagle/Lara Neel
Dancers circle the drums during the intertribal powwow at the Open Space.

Record-Eagle/John L. Russell
Claire Lammers sorts and fills cups of cherries at the Gallagher Farm Market tent in the Open Space.

Record-Eagle/Lara Neel
Brandon Pheasant, 7, from Canada, dances with other traditional dancers during the intertribal powwow.

Record-Eagle/
John L. Russell
Dorothy and Fred Fletcher, of Drummond Island, brought their Mini Coopers to the National Cherry Festival Car and Truck Show.