Arts & Crafts draw artisans from afar

The National Cherry Festival is pleased to announce the 11th Annual Festival Arts & Crafts Fair, sponsored by Downtown Traverse City Association, to be held on Sunday, July 3, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., on Union St. between Grandview Parkway and State St. in downtown Traverse City.

Nearly 150 artists and craftsman from throughout the midwest will participate in the event, with over three-quarters of the registered participants having taken part in years past. A juried arts and crafts fair that draws over 300 applications each year, every possible medium of work will be represented, including painting, pottery, photography, sculpture, metal work, jewelry, furniture, porcelain and ceramics, soft sculpture, weaving, wearable art, basketry, and much more.

"Each year, we see new artisans along with regional favorites," said Festival President Ed Nadeau.

Applications are available by calling the Downtown Traverse City Association at 922-2050. For more information on Festival events visit our Website at www.cherryfestival.org or call 947-4230.
