

Staring at a block of marble, Michelangelo believed his task was to release the figure already within. Just imagine what he would have done with a tree.

Many can sculpt, but who can create a David? True art is not the product of knowledge, it is the product of vision. Those who can see what we cannot, have traveled into a world we could never dream of. It is the artist who shows us the way.

When it comes to practicing the artistry of timber framing in northern Michigan, there are none better than FMS Construction. From initial design to complete turn-key construction, FMS will guide you every step of the way.
