educational seminars featuring Michigan’s best chefs, there’s plenty for both consumers and professionals.

The day will culminate with a Best of Michigan Governor’s Dinner featuring gold medal winning wines and a spectacular 10-course menu prepared by acclaimed Michigan chefs’ Brian Polcyn (Five Lakes Grill), Pete Peterson (Tapawingo), and Luciano Del Signore (Bacco).

“The beauty of northern Michigan in autumn and three days of food and wine,” said Mark Dressler, Epicurean Alliance co-founder, “What could be better? With Mario on board, and many other top names in the mix, 2005 will definitely reach new heights.”

Winemaker for a Weekend
C/o Record-Eagle
120 W. Front Street
Traverse City, MI 49684

You could join the Black Star Farms winemaker as he hosts a day of fun education just for you! Enter to win the Winemaker for a Weekend giveaway. One winner and a guest will be toured through the vineyards and orchards on this amazing property and find out first hand how this amazing region is able to grow some of the best fruit for winemaking.

Lee Lutes, winemaker, will then take you into the winery to sample our tanks as well as into the cellar to enjoy wines that are not even in the bottle yet! Check into the Inn and join us for hospitality hour in the Pegasus Lounge where you will sample appetizers and wine before dinner. Come back and relax in the private sauna room or sit on the porch and watch the riders in the paddocks train their jumpers. Sleep in one of the luxurious rooms on their exquisite mattresses with luxury linens that take you into a blissful night of rest. You will awake to the smells of fresh coffee and baked goods, while Chef Corey prepares a breakfast of no less than five stars. This will truly be a getaway as exquisite as their best vintage of fine wine.

Winners will be drawn at 5 pm on June 9, 2005. Must be 21 or older to win.
