Voted Best Newspaper Columnist

Gary began working for the Chronicle in 1996 as a part-time correspondent and joined the staff full time in June 1998.

Covering Cumberland County government and writing features and personal columns, his awards include Tennessee Press Association first place for Best Feature Photographer and Best Single Feature, and East Tennessee's Society of Professional Journalism's first place for Best Spot News Story.

Inspiration for his columns comes from family, friends and his love of the Cumberland County community, and God. "I like that we have the opportunity to touch people's lives in our community by sharing other people's stories."
